

Descendants of Peter (Sheriff) Shugart

Generation 1

1. PETER (SHERIFF)¹ SHUGART was born in 1724. He died on 24 Jan 1794 in Hagerstown, Washington, MD. He married Anna Mary Worley, daughter of Francis D. Worley, about 1758. She was born in 1726. She died on 06 Aug 1794 in Hagerstown, Washington, MD.

Notes for Peter (Sheriff) Shugart:
[Ykpeteter.ftw]

IREAD ME: In case they'll be of some use in the future, the four-digit number references to my notes have been left in. My records will likely wind up at the Chester County Historical Society Library, 225 North High Street, West Chester, PA 19380. William W. Shugarts, Jr.

INOTES: Unorganized notes by Prof. Stanley P. Shugart, U of Penna., provide much information on this line. Some of it documented, mostly not. For remarks under Peter, "somebody" wrote: Peter S. was in York as late as 1771 (Deputy Constable & Assessor, York Town, 1770-1771). It was in this period that Zachariah S. of Hagerstown was born. He was in Washington Co MD by April 30, 1779, when he enlisted in the Sixth Maryland Regiment (Source: probably Maryland Archives). There is a probability that Peter was the father of Zachariah as Z's oldest son was named Peter. Since only the last five of Z's children were baptized at the Reformed Church in Hagerstown (then) he was living elsewhere before 1795. Reminders: Search Wash Co Records for P. S. and Grimm, Read Francis D. Worley's Will in York Co, Look up Francis D. W. Orphan Court records. Ref 0576. Further notes: Maryland Archives, Wm Shugarts, Prince George Co, enrolled by Wm Dewalt, Passed July 18, 1776 by Jno Addison Lieut Col of Lowes Battalion, Wm Sugars Pt, Apr 25, 78 to Sept ? Also, on same slip of paper, Peter Shugart Pt, Apr 30, 1779 - Nov 1 178X (off the page), Present 6th Maryland Reg, Peter Shugart, Corp. Ref 0594. !ERRONEOUS REFERENCE: Many errors were made in a section on the SHUGART family (pgs 489-492) in a book entitled "West Virginia and Its People", authored by Thomas Condit Miller & Maxwell (1913), Lewis Historical Publishing Co., New York. It starts out by discussing brothers Zachariah, Martin and Eli, all serving in the Rev War. Picking up on Zachariah, it lays out his career in York PA, Sheriff, Innkeeper, Church member, etc., then relates his Rev War record, Lieutenant in the Flying Camp, taken prisoner at the Battle of Ft. Washington, etc. It then states that he married Mary Elizabeth Mulholland, had three sons: John Wilson, Joseph B. and Zachariah. The son Zachariah, supposedly born 25 Mar 1754, married Eva Grimm on 19 Apr 1785 and had children: Peter, John, Zachariah, William, Mary, Sapphira, Jesse, Hezekiah and Elizabeth. There is much confusion among the offspring of Zachariah of York, Peter of York and one of the Johns of Chester Co PA. To my knowledge, each of these men had a son Zachariah and none of them married a Mary Elizabeth Mulholland. York Zachariah's son, Zachariah, moved to Virginia, York Peter's son, Zachariah, moved to Maryland and Chester Co John's son, Zachariah, moved to Centre Co, PA. I believe that some of the mistakes might have been ignorance, but that some of them were due to a lady trying to shape events so that her Zachariah was the Rev War Lieutenant, and she could be in the DAR. York Peter's son, Zachariah, was shown in a Bible as being born 25 Mar 1764, but the entry was altered to read 1754, according to Prof. Stanley P. Shugart. I've accepted the data on the later generations, but reject the earlier confusion. William W. Shugarts, Jr.

!BIRTH: Based on Mary's age at death of 68 (in 1794), will presume that Peter was born about 1724. In a letter from William F. Shugart in 1985, he states "Peter Shugart, born about 1705 in Hesse Cassel, Germany, and came to Hagerstown, MD. About 1725, married his first wife there and later moved to York Co, where he married his second wife. Peter Shugart's children: By his first wife a son, Zachariah, born 1732. By his second wife, a daughter, Anna, born 1759 at Yorktown, PA." Then it goes on to confuse this Zachariah with the other ones in York, and further confuse it all by bringing in the children of my Chester Co John, Joseph B. and John. He attributes this to the 1941 records of H. H. Stout. Ref 2971, 2982. I believe that this is mostly conjecture. I suspect that Peter was in York (as early as 1746) and later moved to Hagerstown. It's not clear to me whether he had two wives or not.

Ref 6520 to 6530.

!FAMILY: On 6 JAN 1993, I added Benjamin as a probable child of this marriage, based on locat ion of Benjamin, probable age in 1820 census and marriage of daughter in 1807 in Shenandoah C o VA. On 13 Jan 2000, I dug out all I could find on old Peter. Eric Shugart pointed out tha t Mary probably couldn't have had children later than the son Peter, yet she was said, at he r death, to have had nine children, so the four unnamed children have been put first. As Eri c pointed out, there's the possibility of her having the first four to some other man befor e Peter.

!GENEALOGY: Mrs. Champlin has John Shugart of Muskingham Co OH. In Hagerstown, John Shugart is listed as a wheelmaker in the early 1800's. Family tradition says that John was a cabinetmaker. Ref 1699. A note from Helen Robinson Long, 2536 Brockman Street, Manhattan, KS 66502, 3 Nov 1999, quoted from Scharf's HISTORY OF WESTERN MARYLAND (p 1175): John Shugart, wheelmaker, Franklin & Potomac SE corner, made and repaired spinning wheels. Lived and had shop on that location.

!FAMILY: A puzzle. A record in the German Reformed Church (now Zion United Church of Christ) Chambersburg, PA: William Boyd and Elizabeth Shugert married by minister 30 Apr 1829. William is son of Joseph Boyd and Elizabeth is dau of John Shugert of Hagerstown, MD. Could this be a second marriage for Eliza or Maria? Ref 1842.

!FAMILY: Letter, in files of Rev E A Shugart copied by Gerry Shugart, Bertha Devin Allen, Omaha NE, 18 AUG 1925: "My GM was Eliza Brooks Shugart, dau of John Shugart and Mary Brooks Cope land of Washington Co PA. When married they went to Brownsville, Fayette Co PA, then to Washington or Canonsburg Washington Co PA where all their children were born. Worley Copeland Shugart was one of GM's brothers, settled near Vincennes IN. This spring I found a George C Shugart of Spencer Ind., the youngest of eleven ch of Worley C Shugart. He was a small man with red hair. My GM once said her father was a red headed Penna. Dutchman. This was first time I had ever seen a red haired person in my family. I have corresponded with Shugarts of Tidoute PA and Charlestown VA but they do not seem to know the John that married Mary B Copeland." Ref 1545-1547. In another letter, OCT 1925: "I have had communication with the family of Worley Copeland Shugart of Vincennes IN, who was a brother of my GM --- and the Council Bluffs family who came from another brother --- the trouble is they are all young people who have not kept track of their line --- but just as eager to know as I am." Ref 1463.

IGENEALOGY: (Mrs.) Bertha Devin Allen says that Mary B. Copeland was English with a VA or PA connection. When Eliza Brooks Shugart was 8 or 10, her father John (in declining health) sent older children to OH, took Eliza and Mary to his old home --- she guesses Williamsburg WV. After he died, the mother, Mary, (and presumably Eliza) went into OH with her children until she died again. Ref 1545.
